CHARACTER FROM THE EYE

Those Who Will Take the Trouble to Observe May Tell Much About Their Associates.

Beware of the shifting, faltering eyes that always look away from you. Small eyes usually mean an alert mind.

If they look straight at you, steady and bright, like a squirrel's, you may expect the right sort of cleverness, a quick tongue and a gift for repartee.

But if the small eyes are more dim and do not look straight into yours, you may look for the wrong kind of cleverness, for little dishonesties and equivocations, and for a business sharpness that is willing to sacrifice too much for a little money.

Large, "travelling" "owl-like" eyes, on the other hand, are less repulsive than the alert, bright little beady eyes; but, once striven to their depths, and they will look infinitely more intense and meaningful than the more impulsive eyes.

Round, protruding eyes show an ambitious nature and a love of action. The longer eyes show more the temperament of the dreamer.

The very beautiful eyes in the world are very clear (that indicates good health), and are set widely apart and rather deep. That width of setting always gives a certain expression of sweet spirituality.

Admonition Applied.

"Young man, don't you know that it's better to be alone than in bad company."

"Yes, sir. Good-by, sir."

GOLDFISH CAME FROM CHINA

Result of Observation Made by Oriental Who Evidently Had an Eye for the Beautiful.

Some centuries ago an observant Chinaman noticed a gay-colored carp swimming among some other fish in a fresh-water pool. The Chinaman did not know it then, but the attention he gave to that little fish started the world in pursuit of another hobby. And that little carp in its gay clothes became the father of millions of finny beauties scattered today all over the earth. We call them goldfish, a writer observes in the Philadelphia North American.

The fish the Chinaman saw was probably an accident—it may have been an albino carp. He singled it out and bred other fish to it. That developed the type. Goldfish were swimming around in aquariums and ponds in China long before the rest of the world saw them.

About the year 1400 the Japanese imported them from China. Two centuries later they reached Europe. There is a story that the first goldfish in France came as a gift to Mme. Pompadour. It is also known that Admiral Ammen of Uncle Sam's navy brought some of the first goldfish to America and gave them a home in a pool at the foot of Lemon hill, Fairmount park, in Philadelphia.

Descendants of this goldfish today are so varied and fantastic that the Chinaman of several centuries ago wouldn't recognize them. There are goldfish with two tails, goldfish with no scales, spotted goldfish, and others adorned with nearly every color of the rainbow.

Serves His Country Well.

Corporal Charles Sarrague, a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, in which he won the Legion of Honor, is again serving his country at the age of seventy-six years, this time as a sapper, and was recently awarded the war medal. He is rather small, with snow-white beard, and has the appearance of a man of forty. In private life he is a civil engineer. For twelve years before the war he was mayor of his native town of Auxerre. In 1870 Corporal Sarrague had been called to the colors as a civil engineer and given the rank of captain. He was twice mentioned in dispatches. After the war he occupied himself with municipal affairs in his native town, and Auxerre owes much to him for his excellent administration. When the present war broke out, he offered his services, passed the examination, and after three months of training was sent to the front.

Takes Place of Call Boy.

No longer will hotel clerks have to "page" the corridors, lobbies and bars when a visitor asks for a guest who cannot be found in his room, Popular Science Magazine says. It will only be necessary to take the key which Mr. Jones has left at the desk, and after a glance say, "Mr. Jones may be found in the grillroom."

The labor-saving device which will make this possible is a novel key tag which has recently been patented by a Chicago inventor. The tag, on which the number of the room is stamped, is oval, and is imprinted with a clock face. By means of a pin in the center of the tag the key may be fastened so that it will act as the clock hand, indicating the approximate time when the user expects to return. On the outer edge of the tag is a series of small holes. Near these are stamped the names of the various public rooms of the hotel. Another pin is attached to the tag by means of a light cord or chain, and this may be placed in any of the holes, indicating the place where he may be found.

Cruel Comment.

"Mr. Smithers says he would die for me."

"He can't. He's too bald."

There's nothing like an obstacle for getting in a man's way.

HAD ALL HER AFFECTION

One Woman in the World Who Was Adored With a Devotion That Was Intense.

She had known her since her earliest infancy and never taken a step without her guidance. She could not recall one twenty-four hours not spent in her presence. While at times intensely weariest of her, there was never a moment when she would not have abandoned anything for her sake. That she tyrannized over her and caused her to make mistakes, at times fatal errors, she never denied. But it never interfered with her passionate admiration of her. Sometimes she found herself going to extreme lengths for her. When in trouble she borrowed money for her; when in grief she tried desperately to console her. Once she attempted to steal a woman's lover for her. She thought her the most wonderful woman in the world and that nothing was too good for her. She was never jealous of her, but she tried to make others envy her. There were times when her love for her caused her to forget reason. There were times, also, when for a short period she hated her, had contempt for her. But she never failed in her service or to return in her adoration of herself.

James D. Barnett, 57 years old, of Montgomery City, for eighteen years probate judge of Montgomery City and for the last twelve years judge of the Eleventh circuit court, died recently at a St. Louis hospital.

William S. Crouch, prominent as a temperance worker and a business man at Carrollton for fifty years, is dead. Mr. Crouch was at one time the prohibition nominee for lieutenant governor. He was active as a Baptist layman. He was 86 years old.

Pettis county is preparing for a special corn growing contest this season in which $1,000 will be awarded to young farmers who make the best showing.

A taste of Puritan life, such as it must have been in the early days of New England, was given soberly on a recent Sunday by Chief of Police Hinton. The rigidity with which Chief Hinton enforced the city's "blue laws" was not only surprising, but paralyzing. Some laughed and some swore, but most all agreed that the chief and his force were strict.

Dudley Groves, 4 years old, a driver of an oil wagon at Springfield, is dead from burns received when a match was carelessly thrown in some gasoline which had been spilled from his wagon.

Thirty farmers had a wolf drive near Hughesville the other night. A number of animals were discovered and chased, but all escaped. Not a dollar of the $20 reward fund had to be used.

Sedalia is to have more than 200 gardens raised by pupils in the public schools this season. C. M. Long, Pettis county agent, will be the director. The lots for gardens are to be given gratuitously. Contest prizes are to be offered.

Commission government was defeated at Excelsior Spring by a majority of 147. The proposition undoubtedly would have won had the election been held several months ago or before the Democrats had selected a complete city ticket.

Lenore Marcus, 3 year old, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was awarded $10,000, the full amount asked, by a jury in the circuit court at St. Louis because her father was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Missouri Athletic club building two years ago. The suit was against the Boatmen's bank, owner of the building.

HAPPENINGS of the week IN MISSOURI

More than 1,000 public school teachers in a mass meeting at St. Louis adopted a resolution to tax themselves one-tenth of 1 per cent of their annual salaries to support a fund to be expended in agitation for the calling of a constitutional convention in Missouri.

Three St. Louis firms have received an order for $5,775,000 worth of high explosive shells from the British government, according to reports by local financiers. The shells are for use in eight-inch howitzers, and delivery will commence within ninety days.

Francis H. Peters, a heavy stockholder in a St. Louis shoe manufacturing concern, celebrated his 75th birthday by giving each of his five sons and his two married daughters $80,000 worth of stock in the corporation. The gifts aggregate $500,000.

Unofficial returns from all precincts of Morgan county in the recent local option election gave the "drys" a majority of 150. There was a heavy vote in most precincts, although a snowstorm kept many from the polls.

Oliver Gilbreath, 28 years old, fell through a window from the second story of the opera house the other night and died the next day as a result of his injuries.

Chester Warren, 8-year-old son of Rev. D. C. Warren, was run over and killed by an automobile driven by Ned Craighead in Nevada the other night.

Here he is—the newest member of the thieving fraternity—the gasoline thief. He drains the tanks of unguarded motor cars parked in the streets. Chief of Police Young of St. Louis has issued an order for the arrest of a gang that has been stealing the costly fluid from the tanks.

Charles Metz, a teamster, was burned to death near Rockport when a load of five gallon cans of gasoline which he was placing in a tank exploded. Metz was smoking a pipe he started to unload the gasoline.

The Bible school of instruction for the second district of the Christian church, comprising the western counties of Missouri, was held at the First Christian church at Warrensburg. Several hundred church workers from Central and Western Missouri attended and forty-eight graduates in Bible study and Sunday school work were awarded diplomas at the close of the school.

A saddle horse sale at Columbia brought more than $12,000. There were thirty-one horses sold. Porter Taylor of Montgomery City paid $1,000, the highest price of the sale, for Rex Thornton, a son of Rex McDonald, belonging to E. D. Moore of Columbia.

MAN WALKS IN AT HIS OWN FUNERAL

Body of Victim of Automobile Accident Was Said to Be Riley's.

Cincinnati.—Edward Riley of Detroit walked into the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Becker, in East Fifth street, the other day and put a stop to his own funeral.

His weeping relatives at first stared. Then followed embraces, and the body of a man killed in an automobile accident in Detroit and sent here as that of Riley was removed to an undertaker's parlors.

Riley declares that the stranger whose burial as his came so near happening was Fred Ellis, a derelict, to whom he gave an old coat not long ago. At Detroit, according to the police, Mrs. Becker and her husband both recently identified the remains of the man, and on this identification a check for $1,500 from an insurance company was presented at the Becker home here in payment of their loss.

Put a Stop to His Own Funeral.

However, the real Mr. Riley refused to let his sister cash the check.

The Wayne county coroner at Detroit directed the disposition of the body that was turned aside.

The presence of the two postcards from Mrs. Becker to Riley found in the coat, it is said, explained Riley's story.

ARRESTED AT PRISON GATE

Convict Caught Twice at Leavenworth, Kan., as He Finished Terms.

Leavenworth, Kan.—George Roberts, alias Pete Miller, alias Frank Hardy, has had trouble "passing the gate" at the federal penitentiary. He was brought here the first time to serve a three-year term on the charge of robbing a post office in Nebraska.

When about to pass out at the end of his term he was arrested and taken to Iowa on the charge of robbing a post office in that state. He pleaded guilty promptly and received another sentence of one year, which he finished recently.

Roberts was bidding his comrades farewell at the gate when Deputy United States Marshal J. M. Meyers arrested him again. He is now held awaiting the coming of government officials to take him away for another trial on the charge of robbing the post office at Pine Bluff, Ill. He is only twenty-seven years old.

CHASED HOME BY PANTHER

Missouri Farmer's Wife Has Terrifying Experience and Narrow Escape From Death.

Gainesville, Mo.—Screams of a panther a few nights ago sent the cold chills creeping up the person of Francis Holland, aged cattleman and sent the coon dogs home with their tails invisible, shivering with fright. It was the first panther heard in Ozark country in four years. The animal is believed to be in the vicinity of "Bear Caves," eleven miles southeast of here.

Recently, a panther visited this part of the country. Mrs. Noah Webb, wife of a farmer living near Mammoth, had a narrow escape from death. The cat followed her half a mile and, as she reached her gate, charged. She got into the house before the panther closed in.

ROOTS UP A CAN OF GOLD

Hog Unearths Nice Little Bunch of Coin on a Farm in Kentucky.

Murray, Ky.—A can containing $300 in gold was uprooted from the ground by a hog on the farm of Bud Ray, near Jones' Mill, in Henry county, Tenn. Mrs. Richard Collins, a neighbor of the Rays, has laid claim to the money. Mrs. Collins says her husband once owned the farm on which the money was found, and that she loaned him the amount contained in the can shortly before his death. After his death, she says, the money could not be found, although his books contained a record reading: "Three hundred dollars canted."

Three Killed by Dynamite Bomb. Sacramento, Cal.—A. Grande, Peter Apostolo and A. Argoni, all of this city, were killed by the explosion of a dynamite bomb thrown through the window of the Apostolo home at midnight. The dynamiting was the result of a feud among garbage men.

Stole to See "Movies." New York.—Anthony Petoski, aged twelve, has confessed, the police say, that he committed ten burglaries and spent the money seeing moving pictures.

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNOBL, 1042 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.
Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YORR, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.

Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMENSINA DUEHRING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

KIDNEYS CLOG UP FROM EATING TOO MUCH MEAT

Take Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking it occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.
